

American Express® Customer Research Community FAQs

Community Membership and Participation

- How do I join the American Express Customer Research Community?
 - American Express Customers may receive an invitation from American Express to participate in the American Express Customer Research Community. Some Customers may not receive this invitation.
- How often will I be contacted for surveys?
 - The frequency of survey invitations may vary from time to time based on market research needs and the types of Customers for whom each survey is relevant. Community members may receive up to three survey invitations in a month.
- Can I opt out of surveys?
 - Community members can opt out of each individual survey by not responding to the invitation.
 - If at any point a community member wishes to exit the community, they may do so by:
 - Emailing support@customercommunitycomms.americanexpress.com with “Unsubscribe”. Please note, this email must be sent from the email address enrolled in the community.
 - Or, clicking on the link to unsubscribe from the community in any survey invite.
 - Please note that a Customer may still receive research invites from American Express that are not affiliated with the Community.
 - If at any point a community member wishes to opt out of all market research from American Express, they may do so by clicking here and confirming the desire to opt out of all market research from American Express.
 - While we strive to process unsubscribe requests as quickly as possible, please allow up to 10 business days for your request to be fulfilled.
- How long will I be a member of the community?
 - Community members will remain a member, unless the member opts out of the community and/or all market research per above or the community is decommissioned. Notice will be sent if the community is decommissioned.
- How are the types of surveys I’m invited to determined?
 - Community members will have the opportunity to select the types of surveys that they want to participate in (online survey vs. online group discussion vs. one-on-one discussions) at the time that they sign up.

- If at any point a community member wishes to change the types of surveys they're invited to, the community member can do so by emailing support@customercommunitycomms.americanexpress.com with a request to update their survey type preferences and indicating which type of survey(s) they wish to be invited to.

Surveys and Data Privacy

- Survey Invitations

- When a new survey is available, community members will receive an invitation from support@customercommunitycomms.americanexpress.com. The invitation will include details like the survey length and honorarium, and will contain a link to the survey itself.
- Surveys will be closed once a sufficient number of responses for analysis is reached.

- Survey Length and Time Commitment:

- The survey length will be stated in each survey invitation. Surveys will generally take 1-10 minutes to complete, unless otherwise noted.

- Data Privacy:

- Please see the American Express Privacy Policy by clicking here.

- Honorariums:

- Surveys will provide an honorarium commensurate with the length and complexity of the survey.
- One of two types of honorariums will be offered: a charity donation or American Express Customer Research Community points. Please note that American Express Customer Research Community points are a separate currency from Membership Rewards points and cannot be combined. The type of honorarium provided and the value of that will be clearly stated in each survey invitation.

- Charity payment:

- Charity payment, where a payment will be made to a charitable organization. The payment is not being made on a per-survey recipient basis, but in total across all survey recipients. The payment will be made by the end of the calendar year.
- The amount that will be paid to the charitable organization will be disclosed in the survey invitation.

- American Express Customer Research Community Points:

- American Express Customer Research Community points, where 1 American Express Customer Research Community point = $1.00. Monetary honorariums earned each month will be automatically redeemed when reaching the minimum threshold (5 American Express Customer Research Community points, equivalent to $5.00). When a monetary honorarium is offered, the minimum value per survey will be 5 American Express Customer Research Community points, equivalent to $5.00. You will be invited to a maximum of three surveys per month.

- Monetary honorariums will be distributed within 12 weeks of reaching the minimum redemption threshold (5 American Express Customer Research Community points). If a community member's balance is greater than 5 American Express Customer Research Community points, the electronic gift card will be issued for the larger amount. All honorariums will be processed monthly, meaning that following automatic redemption, each community member's honorarium balance will reset to 0 American Express Customer Research Community points. American Express Customer Research Community points will not expire.
- Monetary honorariums will be fulfilled via an American Express e-gift card. Gift cards will be delivered electronically to the email address provided by the community member. Each American Express e-gift card will expire 90 days after the date of issuance.

Technical Requirements

- Device Compatibility:
 - Surveys are generally designed to be compatible with a range of devices. From time to time, a survey may suggest a specific type of device (e.g., desktop/laptop computer) for an optimal experience.
- Survey Accessibility:
 - We are committed to ensuring that all our surveys are accessible to everyone. Our surveys are designed to comply with WCAG 2.0 standards. These standards aim to make websites, apps, electronic documents, and other digital assets (including online surveys) accessible to people with a broad range of disabilities, including sensory, intellectual, learning, and physical disabilities.

Feedback and Concerns

- How can I provide feedback or report issues?
 - For feedback or issues specific to a survey, a support email address will be provided in the survey invite, as well as within the survey itself.
 - For feedback or issues related to the community, email support@customercommunitycomms.americanexpress.com.
- Customer Support:

- For support related to surveys, a support email address will be provided in the survey invite, as well as within the survey itself.
- For support related to the community, email support@customercommunitycomms.americanexpress.com.

Additional Questions

- Can I update my profile information?

- Community members can update their profile information at any time by emailing support@customercommunitycomms.americanexpress.com.
- Please keep in mind that the email address used with the community should always be the same as the one used to manage your American Express account(s). This will ensure that requests to opt out of all market research are honored.

- Can I invite friends or family to join the community?

- The American Express Customer Research Community is only available by invitation from American Express.

- How do I unsubscribe from the community?

- If at any point a community member wishes to exit the community, they may do so by:
 - Emailing support@customercommunitycomms.americanexpress.com with “Unsubscribe”. Please note, this email must be sent from the email address enrolled in the community.
 - Or, clicking on the link to unsubscribe from the community in any survey invite.
- If at any point a community member wishes to opt out of all market research from American Express, they may do so by clicking here and confirming the desire to opt out of all market research from American Express.
- Please keep in mind that the email address used with the community should always be the same as the one used to manage your American Express account(s). This will ensure that requests to opt out of all market research are honored.
- While we strive to process unsubscribe requests as quickly as possible, please allow up to 10 business days for your request to be fulfilled.